Equine Affaire – April 9th -12th, 2026

Long awaited—but finally arrived! Expectation and excitement are in force for this event. Trucks and trailers have been serviced, horses bathed, trimmed, and prepared, equipment loaded—the thrill begins.

The Equine Affaire is held at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus, Ohio. It's a 4-day event dedicated to horses and everything in the equine world. Through offered knowledge, experiences, displays, demonstrations and lectures, a person starts to speak "Horse".

Maple Crest Horse Farm has attended and promoted the Walking Horse Breed since the event's conception 32 years ago. We've been part of the breed booth, displaying our horses and offering information about the breed and TWHBEA to one and all. We offered printed materials for perusal to both the youth and adults, answered all questions, placing the personal touch to this great breed. We were joined by Mag Ranft (President of MOWHA), Wendy Kaufman, Allie Deck, Brenda Chellis (Allie's mother), Chris Scherz, Allison Fraser and Mark Farrar (TWHBEA CEO), plus the Ohio State Director Terrance Moyer in attendance.

Allie Deck and Staubach (Chetty), Chris Scherz and Smokeys Night Star (Smoke), and Allison Fraser and I'm Wargames (Helia) were the presenters from Maple Crest Horse Farm. They rode or presented in all the demos, demonstrating the natural gaits of the Tennessee Walking Horse. All 3 horses were displayed in the breed booth petting area, exemplifying the friendliness and temperament of the breed. The public oohed and aahed at the horses and petted them while taking photos of the moment.

Now we wait for another year for the thrill of the Equine Affaire. A long wait, but worth the event.
